

Community Data Program

Enabling communities across Canada to measure and track local well-being

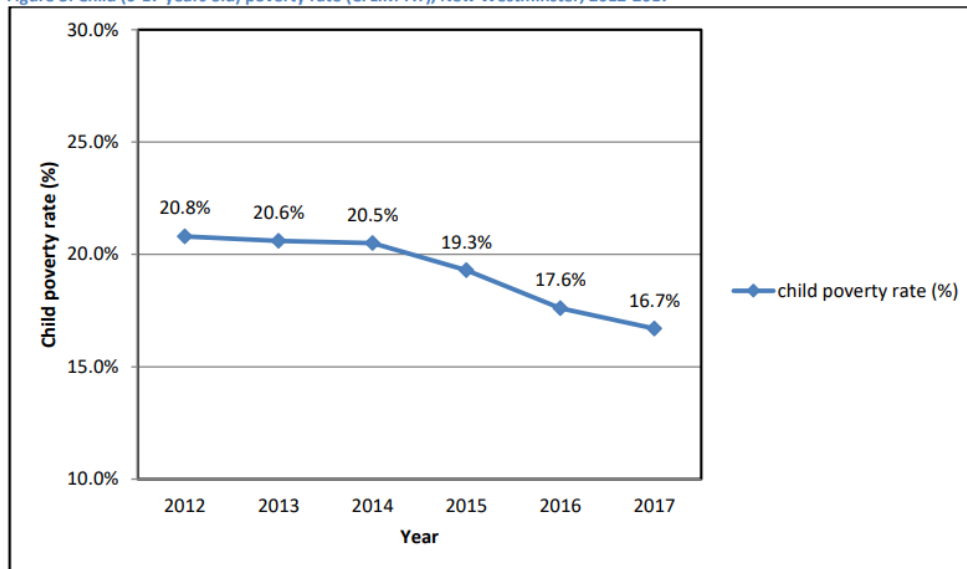

Community Snapshot New Westminster Child Poverty Profile

Summary

This profile is designed to answer questions about child poverty in New Westminister, including how many people are living in poverty, who is living in poverty, where they are living, and how this has changed over time. This profile is structured based on answering common questions about child poverty.

Figure 3: Child (0-17 years old) poverty rate (CFLIM-AT), New Westminister, 2012-2017

Source: Statistics Canada. T1FF Taxfiler Data. Table I-13 After-tax low income status of tax filers and dependents (census family low income measure, CFLIM-AT) for couple and lone parent families by family composition. 2012-2017. Downloaded from Community Data Program.

Click here to view the New Westminister Child Poverty Profile

Practitioner

Tristan Johnson is a Senior Planning Analyst with the City of New Westminister. He used the Community Data to develop the Child Poverty Profile.

The city of New Westminister is a member organization of the Vancouver Data Consortium as part of the Community Data Program.

Community data used

- Census of population 2016, Statistics Canada
- Taxfiler (T1FF) - Income of Families/Individuals, Statistics Canada

The Community Data Program is an initiative of the Canadian Community Economic Development Network